ITALY

We're been supporting our African brethren in Italy for very many years now. Many of them are Italian citizens and have lived in Italy for decades, where they work, have families and their children are in school. There is a wave of far right anti-immigrant sentiment sweeping Europe at the moment, resulting in so much racism against folks of colour. This is really awful for so many of our brothers and sisters. Do pray for them. These aren't illegal immigrants, asylum seekers etc., these are people who came on legal working visas, have worked many years, been responsible citizens and now have Italian passports. It's really not a nice situation. We're providing support where needed, and plan to make a brief visit to our brethren this week, hopefully climaxing in baptisms in the river Po near Turin [Torino]. If any of you are holidaying in northern Italy, do come down and spend a day with us.

POLAND

We've had lots of online connection with WIKTORIYA a young woman in Warsaw, Poland who has come to understand the truth of one God, the Lord of our nature, not pre-existing, the Kingdom on earth, hell, satan and in fact the whole picture of Bible truth. She's written a wonderful book about her understandings and we've proof read it for her. Nobody could doubt she is heart and soul a worshipper of God in spirit and truth. So it was a great day when about 20 of us gathered together online to witness her baptism on Zoom.

UKRAINE

Our brethren have mainly fled, or, are in hiding, never going out of doors. One young brother hasn't been out of the family flat for 3 years now. Another just goes for a walk in the yard outside the apartment block once / day. His father [not a brother] was arrested and taken to the army whilst walking to work from that flat. It's really brutal what's going on there. All men up to 60 have been issued the call up, most ignore it, but, they are then arrested on the streets by the military police, and because they ignored the call up, they are assigned to very dangerous front line positions. All the more difficult if you have promised yourself to "resist not evil" and not shoot to kill even in self defence. Brother Alexei is in such a situation, now on the Zaporizhe front. He sent us this photo of himself this morning as we send this out... really, need your prayers:

We have about 30 brethren in hiding in Ukraine at this time, most were previously the bread winner in the family so we are having to support some of the families. Most days we have some contact with one or other of them. Our advice has always been to lay low, not go out, and pray this passes. Although it's been years now. One brother in Kiev was taken, he literally had a breakdown and they released him as unfit for service. Sis Nina's wife br Igor likewise was taken, they said they'd give him 3 weeks intense training then send him to the front, he had a major heart attack after 2 weeks training, he is not in a good way. All are very fragile now in mental health. And those now staying indoors all the time, it's so damaging mentally for them. Not much further we can do about it. Ukraine doesn't operate alternative service for COs. Illegally leaving Ukraine is difficult... One of the Jewish sisters has a brother who was taken, he refused to carry a weapon, he is on the Sumy front, right on the front, as a chef. He now has his first leave, he's been there 18 months. I hope to meet and baptize him during his leave.

Elsewhere, we're still trying to source a mobility scooter for an elderly sister, it will make al the difference for her and be a life changer. There are old second hand ones for sale but the batteries are shot. And we have been told we can't take one on the plane to Poland unless the traveller is themselves disabled. And then there is the big issue of transporting such a large item within war-torn Ukraine. We have seen the following fairly knew one on offer within Ukraine for 32,800 UAH which is about 730 US$ or £ 550. Plus the transport issues. Maybe this would be a project for an ecclesia to support?

UK

And the UK just keeps on being blessed with response. This week yet more came to the Lord Jesus, RICK and his brother CARL near Manchester, and then, after church on Sunday, AISHA, a friend of sister Rachel, near Croydon- after talking about it for a very long time and struggling with the balance between taking the step of commitment, and on the other hand, waiting to "feel ready". Was great to have her husband witnessing and videoing the baptism in their bathtub.

And don't forget to keep the date of December 4-6 clear for the Carelinks / Croydon Pub Church away weekend in Tonbridge, Kent!

With love from your brothers and sisters of Carelinks
